Mr. Recorder ADAIR and Mr. Common
Serjeant NUGENT's Opinion.

WHEN a Charter, granted within Time of Memory, has been accepted and acted under, it becomes (so far as it is consistent with the general Law of the Land) the Law of the Corporation to whom it has been granted, and no Usage contrary to that Charter can prevail, or acquire Validity; We are therefore of Opinion, that the Deputy, and such of the Assistants of the IRISH SOCIETY as are not Recorder or Aldermen, must be chosen wholly out of the Commonalty of the City of London, by which We clearly understand the Common Council; but that, in such Election, a Preference is to be given to the Members of the Twelve Companies, so that no Person of any other Company can be elected, while there is any Member of any of these Companies in the Court of Common Council, capable of being chosen; but that if there be no Member of the Twelve Companies so capable of being chosen, then a Commoner or Commoners of other Companies may be chosen to fill the vacant Place or Places.

WERE it otherwise, the Management of the whole Property of the Twelve Companies in Ireland might be wrested from them, and placed in the Hands of Persons not interested in it, which would be contrary to every Principle of Law and Justice.

J. ADAIR.
